

Afterglow

[Verse 1]

We were seventeen when we met, in that Noisy room.
I was too shy to look at you on the stage.
A sea of black shirts and nerves under the cheap stage lights
I still see that room when you pull me close sometimes.

[Chorus]

You find the light when the dark gets loud
You hold your ground when the bottle calls
Seventeen-year-old hearts still beating in time
I'm still here, and I'm proud of you

[Verse 2]

By 2019, we found our way back.
Like a song we never lost
Then 2023, we said I do
An old shy glance grew into something true

[Bridge]

And I know what you fought when nobody else saw it
The long nights, the weight you carried
You got sober, and you keep showing up
Clear-headed, steady, building our family up

[Final Chorus]

You find the light when the dark gets loud
You hold your ground when the bottle calls
Seventeen-year-old hearts still beating in time
I'm still here, and I'm proud of you
So when the road gets rough, I'll always be your home
You never have to carry it alone
